

Pesticide applicators receive 1 Continuing Certification Hour

Pasture Field Day

When & Where

Tuesday, September 29th, 2015*

9:00am – 2:00pm at

Trinity United Methodist Church

90 Boney Rd.

Blythewood, SC 29016

We will carpool to pastures at Camp Discovery for hands-on learning.

Rain Date: October 13th, 2015

Features

- Soil Health & Pasture Management
- Rainfall Simulator Presented by SCDNR
- Rotational Grazing & Temporary Fencing
- Pasture Weed Walk: Weed ID and Control Measures
- Technical & Financial Assistance
- Introduction to the Twenty-five Mile Creek Watershed 319 Program
- Lunch Sponsored by Members of the SC Grazing Lands Coalition

Registration

Workshop is FREE but registration is required.

RSVP to Charlie Fisher:

fisherc@rcgov.us

(803) 576-2080

Speakers

- Gordon Mikell, NRCS State Agronomist
- Dr. John Andrae, SC Forage Specialist
- Travis Mitchell, Livestock/Forage Agent
- Jill Epley, NRCS Grazing Lands Specialist

...and more!

This workshop is sponsored by the Richland and Kershaw Soil and Water Conservation Districts with support from the organizations shown below. Some funding for this event is provided by the US EPA under a Section 319 Grant through the SC Department of Health and Environmental Control (SC DHEC).

